Leslie,

Attached are my unofficial comments on the DQO tables – I never discussed them with anyone so take them with a grain of salt but I do highlight where changes we requested were made and where standards were flip-flopping.

Again, these are by no means official comments, just my ramblings while I read through the tables.

In the comments I sent you before on the OU2 RIFS WP, I have noted general changes to the DQO tables that I thought would be beneficial.

Let me know if you have any questions or give me a call if there's anything else you'd like to discuss.

Happy reading!

Maddie
